

Date: _____

To whom it may concern:

_____, DOB _____ was given a medically prescribed treatment at our office. The diagnosis codes associated with this treatment are listed below. Our medical provider reviewed their medical history and deemed it medically necessary to help lessen severity of symptoms associated with the conditions listed.

Costly symptoms that HT has been shown to improve include:

- Depression and altered mood states
- Extreme fatigue
- Insomnia
- Sexual dysfunction
- Bone loss
- Joint pain
- Mild cognitive impairment (related to hormone decline)
- Difficulty focusing or adult attention deficit

After careful consideration the medical history, physical exam findings and a complete review of laboratory data, the patient has been diagnosed with the following:

Diagnosis Codes: R53.82, F41.9, R68.82, E34.9, F34.89, R63.5, E07.89, R41.3, N53.9, N41.9

Frequent lab draws are important to keep a close eye on the efficacy of treatment and patient safety.

Hormone pellet implants when used simultaneously with other peptides and oral supplements/vitamins have been studied extensively. They have been proven to not only alleviate the encumbering symptoms of the above diagnosis, but also help to prevent future costly and detrimental ailments. Please honor our request for reimbursement for this life-changing therapy.
